areas of our diocese. He once said, "I spent most of my priesthood in the cities and the suburbs, I never knew how wonderful these rural parishes were." Father Alan's greatest joy was preparing to open up the word at the Sunday assemblies each week. He enjoyed making himself available for the sacraments of anointing of the sick, and reconciliation. In his last few months at the Teresian house he enjoyed counseling in the other patients and staff and hearing their confessions. His role as a priest was his greatest joy in his life. Father Alan loved traveling. He visited most areas of the globe and each time he returned home he proclaimed, "That was the best trip yet." His trips often were like retreats as he visited shrines and holy places on his trips. He credited St. Anthony keeping him safe on his journeys and throughout his life. He also loved St. Therese of Lisieux as well as the saints in general. He consumed Butler's Lives of the saints and loved to read of the history of the church and the world. Father Alan was known for his sense of humor. Meetings were fun when he was present. He often included humor in his proclamation of the word at Mass. Father Alan was proud of his Russian Heritage on his father's side of the family. He enjoyed visiting churches of the Orthodox tradition. Father Alan had a generous nature and helped out many far and near. Father Alan died on a Sunday morning the day our Lord rose and we pray for Father Alan's resurrection into the kingdom today. He is survived by one sister, Alicia Jupin-Morrison of Latham; his best friend and special niece, Heather Morrison Oppedisano and her husband Thomas Oppedisano of Clifton Park; special nephew, Daniel James Morrison; great-nephews, Daniel II, Neal Alexander, Evan Glenn Morrison; great-niece, Angel Morrison; all of Clarkston, Mich. Thomas and Vincent Oppedisano of Clifton Park; and his aunt Dorothy Shewczyk of Maplewood; and many cousins.
